DETAILED ACTION

Response to Request for Reconsideration

1. Applicant's arguments filed with respect to claims 1-15 on 8/19/04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

3. Claims 1-15 remain rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Lennon et al., (hereinafter referred to as "Lennon"), as was set forth in the Office Action of 5/19/04.

4. The Applicant presents two arguments contending the Examiner's rejection of claims 1-15 as set forth in the previous Office Action of 5/19/04. However, after a careful consideration of the arguments presented, the Examiner respectfully disagrees, and maintains the grounds of rejection for the reasons that follow.

Firstly, the Applicant argues that Lennon is directed towards the encoding process, and not towards the architecture of a plurality of decoders as recited in the instant invention (Request for Reconsideration: page 2, lines 3-27; page 3, lines 1-29; page 4, lines 1-3), as in the claims. The Examiner respectfully disagrees. It is noted that the video system discloses reconstruction of an already encoded digital video signal at any desired resolution (Lennon: column 2, lines 55-65). In order to reconstruct an already encoded signal, it inherently requires a corresponding decoding process in order to restore the already encoded video signal to its originally captured. If Lennon failed to disclose the capability of reconstruction working in concert with an encoding process, then the Examiner would have arrived at same conclusion as argued by the Applicant. However, since it does disclose reconstruction (including decoding) and further discloses a transmission and reception architecture (Lennon: column 6, lines 50-67) that inherently requires a codec architecture. Accordingly, the Examiner maintains that while Lennon directs the main thrust its disclosure towards the encoding side of a codec application, it sufficiently address the implementation for an architecture of a plurality decoders, as in the claims.

Secondly, the Applicant argues that Lennon fails to disclose each decoder being implemented with a different predetermined model (Request for Reconsideration: page 4, lines 3-28; page 5, lines 1-5)). The Examiner respectfully disagrees. It is noted that while this model allocation is discussed in terms of encoding process, that during reconstruction using a decoder, the same models would be applied as a preprocessing step executed prior to decoding, rather than the disclosed encoding. Accordingly, the Examiner maintains that this feature is met as well.

Conclusion

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

6. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Andy S. Rao whose telephone number is (703)-305-4813. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday 8 hours.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Chris S. Kelley can be reached on (703)-305-4856. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 703-872-9306.
